Run Over.-A colored boy, about seven years old, was run over, on Back street, on Friday evening of last week, by a large log wagon belonging to Hill, Harlan & Co. The wagon had a large whiteoak log on at the time of the accident. One of the wheels passed directly over the loins of the child, crushing it in a most frightful manner. Strange to say, the child is still living, and the doctors report favorably of its

The accident occurred from "hanging or the wagon," and should be a warning to parents to keep their children away from teams. To prevent such accidents from taking place, if the teamsters use stern measures, and drive the boys off, the parents are so silly in many instances as to resent the interferenence of the drivers, and appeal to the law for redress, thus encouraging the already too impudent boys of the town to practice their mischief and endanger life and limb. These remarks apply more especially to the whites, the colored parents having not yet discarded the City of Wilmington Del., there is an establishment from which issues weekly the wisdom of Solomon, by "Sparing the rod and spoiling the child;" but still adhere to the faith that there is a good deal of virtue in a birch.

Resolved, That we can only advance our reform by original associated effort, and as the influence of any organization is just in proportion to the number of good citizens that identify themselves with it, we camthat identify themselves with it, we carriestly invite all good people to unite with us, and thus make an aggregate of social, moral and Christian influences, which will put down social wine and dram-drinking in our country.

Resolved, That it is only by educating the public mind up to a just appreciation of the momentous issues involved that we can hope for permanent success, and we will work until that end is accomplished.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention he and are hereby tendered to the vention be and are hereby tendered to the citizens of Charlestown for their kind hos-

Resolted, That extracts from the proceedings of this Convention be furnished by our Secretary to our county papers, and such others as he may select.

Reports from various Lodges were en ouraging, as indicating a healthy state of the Order in our county.

The Convention then adjourned until 7 . M., when they met and proceeded to the M. E. Church, where a large public meeting assembled, which was addressed by our G. W. C. T., Rev. T. L. Poulson, Rev. J. Dare and others, interspersed with some appropriate music. All went home in the best of good humor, well pleased with their reception at Charlestown.

At our next meeting we propose to move on the enemy from our county seat, and will be confident of a warm reception from our friends in your town, though expect to be prepared to meet our enemies also, if any are to be found to meet us.
